Part VI, Line 6 - The Organization has members. Qualifications for membership are that they ask to be a member, pay dues, and agree to work within the Organization's mission and guidelines.

Part VI, Line 7 - The Organization's members are voting members. Individuals wishing to become members must ask to be members, pay annual dues, agree with the Organization's mission and to work within the Organization's guidelines. Members also agree to take action to advance the Organization's mission at least three times per year. Members elect members of the board of directors. Decisions by directors are subject to membership approval if such decisions change membership rights or responsibilities.

Part VI, Line 11 - The Form 990 is reviewed by the Finance Committee of the Board, which includes the treasurer. All members of the board receive a copy of the Form 990 as well as an oral and written summary of its contents.

Part VI, Line 15 - The Board of Directors consulted with a headhunter and the director of a foundation that funded similar sized social justice organizations regarding the salary range of the Executive Director. Additional considerations were the fiscal health and outlook for the organization, and wanting a relatively flat salary structure in companson with the rest of the staff. The salary range was approved by the board, and based on that an offer was made to the Executive Director. The Organization has no other paid officers or key employees.

Part VI, Line 19 - The Organization makes its governing documents and financial statements available to the public upon request.

Part IV, Line 12a - The Organization's financial statement audit for the 18-month period ended June 30, 2012 is in process. The audit is occurring later this year than usual due to the Organization's decision to change its fiscal year.

Part VI, Line 2 - Rebecca Subar, the chair of the board of directors, and Noah T. Winer, another member of the board, are business partners in a consulting firm.
