GSA-2016-001061	Request	History Associates Incorporated (HAI)	TBD		Records pertaining to copies of records that may be in the possession, custody, or control of the General Services Administration (GSA). Specifically, we are requesting copies of any files, including, but not limited to, correspondence, maps, cartographic materials, and/or site reports, for Naval Weapons Industrial Reserve Plant, Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corporation located in Bethpage, New York. The facility is currently located at 600 Grumman Road and whose former address was only written as Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corporation, Bethpage, Long Island, New York. However, this search does not need to be limited to those document types. Our time period of interest is from 1940 to 1970. HAI's previous research has shown that GSA possesses records on Industrial Reserve Plants in California and it is our understanding that GSA may hold similar files for New York. Unfortunately, we do not have a specific "filing code" for this plant, but the code should begin with "N-NY." Similar records have been found in the offices of the Public Buildings Services or Real Property Disposal Files, but these records may also exist in another entity within the GSA. Based on inquiries with National Archives (NARA) facilities, HAI believes that these records are currently held at the GSA's current offices in New York. Therefore, we are requesting a thorough search for Bethpage, New York sites within accessions titled "Real Property Disposal Case Files" and "Real Property Account Files" located at the GSA between 1940 and 1970. Files of interest may also be located within Real Property Account Files in the General Records of the GSA, Real Property Disposal Case Files within the Records of the Public Buildings Service or within other unknown record collections. Please see the attached document for an extended version of this description.
