SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1. On September 11, 2001, approximately 3029 individuals were murdered when nineteen terrorists perpetrated an attack on the United States that was unprecedented in history. The nineteen terrorists (hereinafter referred to as the "al Qaeda hijackers" or the "hijackers") were members of a terrorist network known as "al Qaeda." In a coordinated attack, they hijacked four passenger jet airliners, causing two jets to crash into the World Trade Center Towers in New York, and a third to crash into the Pentagon Building in Arlington County, Virginia. The fourth airliner crashed into a field near the town of Shanksville, Pennsylvania, after innocent passengers challenged the hijackers and prevented them from reaching their apparent destination in Washington, B.C.

2. The attacks of September 11, 2001, were not isolated incidents, but rather a coordinated effort by the al Qaeda terrorist organization, planned for years by an extensive network of Islamic militants with the support, aid and assistance of banks, governments, and individuals. The leader of al Qaeda, Osama bin Laden, has admitted his responsibility for planning and carrying out the September 11 attacks. The al Qaeda organization, with the aid and assistance of various individuals, organizations and governments, sponsored, trained, funded, and supported the hijackers.

3. Plaintiffs, through their undersigned attorneys, do hereby bring this Complaint seeking damages on behalf of themselves, as descendants and as Executor of the Estate of John P. O'Neill, deceased, and on behalf of a class of all those similarly situated, arising out of those terrorist attacks. Plaintiffs demand judgment against the Defendants, and, through their undersigned attorneys, do hereby bring this Class Action Complaint seeking damages arising out of those terrorist attacks, and states as follows:

4. Plaintiffs are the Estate and immediate family of John P. O'Neill Sr., former head of the counterterrorism division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("F.B.I."), former Special Agent In Charge of the National Security Division of the New York Office of the FBI and the world's foremost expert on Islamic terrorism and Osama Bin Laden's terror network. John P. O'Neill, Sr., was killed in the attacks on the World Trade Center ("WTC").

5. John P. O'Neill, Sr., became Chief of Security for the World Trade Center less than two weeks prior to the September 11th attacks. On the morning of September 11, 2001, John P. O'Neill, Sr., was in his office in the WTC South Tower at the time the first plane hit the North Tower. He immediately left his office and headed to the lobby of the North Tower to determine what had happened and to assess the damage. A command post was set up in the lobby of the North Tower from which he was able to direct the rescue efforts of the first emergency responders. When the second plane hit the South Tower, he returned there to coordinate the rescue efforts in that building. John P. O'Neill, Sr., was killed when that the South Tower collapsed.

6. On the morning of September 11, 2001, al Qaeda hijackers Mohammed Atta, Abdul Alomari, Wail al-Shehri, Waleed al-Shehri, and Satam al-Suqami hijacked American Airlines flight 11, bound from Boston to Los Angeles, and crashed it into the North Tower (Tower One) of the World Trade Center in New York.

7. On the morning of September 11, 2001, al Qaeda hijackers Marwan al-Shehhi, Fayez Ahmed a/k/a/ Bamihammad Fayez, Ahmed al-Ghamdi, Hazma al- Ghamdi, and Molahd al-Shehri hijacked United Airlines Flight 175, bound from Boston to Los Angeles, and crashed it into the South Tower (Tower Two) of the World Trade Center in

New York City.

8. On the morning of September 11, 2001, al Qaeda hijackers Khalid al-Midhar, Nawalf al-Hazmi, Salem al-Hazmi, Hani Hanjour, and Majed Moqed hijacked American Airlines Flight 77, bound from Dulles Airport in Sterling, Virginia, to Los Angeles, California, and crashed it into the Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia.

9. On September 11, 2001, al Qaeda hijackers Zihad Jarrah, Ahmed Al-Haznawi, Saeed Al-Ghamdi, and Ahmed al-Nami hijacked United Airlines Flight 93, bound from Newark, New Jersey to San Francisco, California, with the intention of crashing that plane into either the United States Capitol building or the White House in Washington, B.C. In a heroic act of defiance and courage, the passengers of Flight 93 overtook the hijackers, and the plane crashed near Shanksville, Pennsylvania, prior to reaching its target in Washington, B.C.

10. All nineteen (19) hijackers were members of Osama Bin Laden's al Qaeda network. All of the hijackers received sponsorship, funding, training, and other support through the al Qaeda network.

11. Plaintiffs move for judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally. In support of their Complaint, Plaintiffs allege as follows:

Defendants Schreiber & Zindel, Dr. Frank Zindel, Engelbert Schreiber, Engelbert Schreiber, Jr., Martin Wachter, Erwin Wachter, Sercor Treuhand Anstalt, Albert Friedrich Armand Huber, a/k/a Ahmed Huber a/k/a Albert Huber a/k/a Armand Albert Friedric a/k/a Armand Huber a/k/a/ Ahmad Huber-el Biali, Ali Ghaleb Himmat, al Taqwa bank a/k/a Bank Al Taqwa, a/k/a Bank al Taqwa Limited a/k/a Bank of Taqwa Limited, al Taqwa Trade, Property and Industry, Ltd. a/k/a al Taqwa Trade, Property and Industry Company Limited, a/k/a al Taqwa Trade, Property and Industry Establishment a/k/a Himmat Establishment a/k/a Hochburg a/k/a Waldenburg a/k/a Al Taqwa Trade, Property and Industry Limited, Akida Bank Private Limited, Akida Investment Co. 77. Some of the businesses, banks and charities operate legitimately but also maintain a secret dual role as Al Qaeda front organizations and actively support its terrorist activities. Some of those organizations are purely a sham front for Al Qaeda.

78. Defendants Al Taqwa and Nada Management Organization are banks who had their origin in the late 1980's, during which time the leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood formed financial management firms and banks called "Al Taqwa" ("Fear of God"), that were dedicated to the overthrow of Western nations, and the creation of a worldwide Islamic government. Headquartered in Lugano, Switzerland, with branches in Italy, Algeria, Liechtenstein, Malta, Panama and the Bahamas, they consist of the Al Taqwa Bank, Al Taqwa Management Organization SA, Al Taqwa Trade, Property and Industry, Ltd. and The Asat Trust.

79. Upon information and belief, the Al Taqwa Defendants have financed and laundered money for Arab and Islamic political and militant groups including the Algerian Armed Islamic Group (GIA) and the Egyptian Gala'a al-Islamiya, Islamic terrorist groups with links to Bin Laden and his Al Qaeda organization. Additionally, international investigations indicate that Al-Taqwa facilitated the movement of Bin Laden's money around the world in the late 1990's, a task made easier because its complex structure was designed to prevent scrutiny of its operations.

80. The Al Taqwa Defendants were founded by Defendant Yousef M. Nada, and its other principals are Defendants Ali G. Himmat, Ahmed Huber and Mohamed Mansour. Defendants Huber and Mansour are senior members of the Muslim Brotherhood.

81. Defendant Al Taqwa Bank is part of Defendant Al Taqwa Trade, Property and Industry Company which is located in Vaduz, Liechtenstein. This entity is also known as Himmat Establishment, run by a partner of Nada who, like Nada, is a member of the Egyptian Islamic Brotherhood. Although Egyptian-born, Mr. Nada is a naturalized citizen of Italy. Mr. Nada also is a member of Jamaa al-Islamiya, which is directly allied to Al Qaeda through Dr. Ayman al Zawahiri, second in command to Osama Bin Laden.

82. Shortly after dual U.S. Embassy bombings in Kenya and Tanzania by Al Qaeda in 1998, U.S. intelligence agencies tracked telephone contact between Al Taqwa, members of Bin Laden's inner circle, and Albert "Ahmed" Huber, a convert to Islam in the 1960's who has publicly expressed support for Al Qaeda. Huber has acknowledged that Ahmad I. Nasreddin, a/k/a Hadj Ahmed Nasreddin, a/k/a Ahmed Idriss Nasreddin, is, in fact, an Al Taqwa founding member and bank shareholder who was very active in financing and operating the Islamic Cultural Institute of Milan, which follows the violent teachings of convicted terrorist Omar Abdul Rahman. The Institute was frequently visited by known Al Qaeda terrorists. Upon information and belief, the Institute is known in Western intelligence communities as one of the main Al Qaeda stations in Europe and was used to move weapons, men, and money around the world.

83. After September 11, 2001, Al Taqwa changed its name to the Nada Management Organization SA in an attempt to avoid scrutiny. Al Taqwa and the Nada group, as well as their four principals – Nada, Himmat, Huber, and Mansour, have had their assets frozen and are believed by the U.S. Department of Justice to be co-conspirators of Al Qaeda.

84. A direct link between Iran and the joint activities of Hezbollah and Al Qaeda is the Al-Taqwa bank of Switzerland and Liechtenstein. The link primarily is through Ahmad Huber-El Biali (aka Ahmed Huber). Huber is a principal shareholder of Al-Taqwa bank which was sanctioned by the U.S. government for helping to finance Al Qaeda. Since 1983, Huber has repeatedly visited Iran. In 1988, Huber first met Youssef Nada in Iran. Nada, an Egyptian belongs to the Muslim Brotherhood. Like Nada, Huber embraced the Muslim Brotherhood. At a conference in Iran in 1988, Nada asked Huber to participate in the founding of al-Taqwa. Al-Taqwa bank has been a funding source for activities involving Hamas, which has received direct funding from Iran. Hamas, an outgrowth of Palestinian Muslim Brotherhood founder Abdullah Azzam, is closely associated with Hezbollah. Azzam, along with Osama bin Laden, were cofounders of the Maktab al-Khidamir (MAK), a precursor to Al Qaeda. Iran is known to have appointed Hezbollah's terrorist chief, Imad Mughniyeh as coordinator of Iran's activities with the Hamas and the Palestinian Islamic Jihad in Lebanon.

85. Defendant Asat Trust Reg. of Baduz, Liechtenstein, is another money laundering organization whose assets were frozen after the events of September 11, 2001. Defendant Yusef M. Nada founded and operated Asat Trust Reg.

COUNCIL ON AMERICAN ISLAMIC RELATIONS (CAIR) and CAIR CANADA

86. Council on American Islamic Relations and CAIR Canada (collectively, CAIR), have aided, abetted, and materially sponsored and al Qaeda and international terrorism. CAIR is an outgrowth of the Hamas front group the Islamic Association of Palestine. The FBI's former associate director in charge of Investigative and Counter-Intelligence Operations described the Islamic Association of Palestine as an organization that has directly supported Hamas military goals and is a front organization for Hamas that engages in propaganda for Islamic militants. It has produced videotapes that are very hate-filled, full of vehement propaganda. It is an organization that has supported direct confrontation.

87. CAIR and CAIR-Canada have, since their inception, been part of the criminal conspiracy of radical Islamic terrorism. These organizations play a unique role in the terrorist network. They emanate from the notorious HAMAS terrorist organization and like so many of the terrorism facilitating charities named and indicted by the United States government they are engaged in fund raising under the guise of assisting humanitarian causes they are, in reality, a key player in international terrorism. The unique role played by CAIR and CAIR-Canada is to manipulate the legal systems of the United States and Canada in a manner that allows them to silence critics, analysts, commentators, media organizations, and government officials by leveling false charges of discrimination, libel, slander and defamation. In addition, both organizations have actively sought to hamper governmental anti-terrorism efforts by direct propaganda activities aimed at police, first-responders, and intelligence agencies through so-called sensitivity training. Their goal is to create as much self-doubt, hesitation, fear of name-calling, and litigation within police departments and intelligence agencies as possible so as to render such authorities ineffective in pursuing international and domestic terrorist entities.

88. The role of CAIR and CAIR-Canada is to wage PSYOPS (psychological warfare) and disinformation activities on behalf of Whabbi-based Islamic terrorists throughout North America. They are the intellectual “shock troops” of Islamic terrorism. In the years and months leading up to the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001 these organizations were very effective in helping to ensure that North American law enforcement and intelligence officials were sufficiently deaf, dumb, and blind to help pave the way for the attacks on the United States. The role played by these entities is an absolutely essential part of the mix of forces arrayed against the United States as they help soften-up targeted countries so as to facilitate and enhance the likelihood for a successful attack.

International Islamic Relief Organization and Success Foundation

89. The International Islamic Relief Organization (“IIRO”) a/k/a Islamic Relief Organization a/k/a International Relief Organization refers to and includes the International Islamic Relief Organization of Saudi Arabia, as well as any and all subsidiary, affiliate, related and/or branch offices thereof, including, without limitation, all of the following, each of whom has been and is identified as a defendant herein: International Islamic Relief Organization (Saudi Arabia) and International Islamic Relief Organization branch offices and/or subsidiaries or affiliates or related parties, in Africa, Asia, Europe, Canada, the United States of America, Latin America and the Caribbean.

Wa'el Jalaidan, named by the U.S. Treasury Department as one of the founders of al Qaeda, headed the MWL office in Peshawar, Pakistan, and also served as the Secretary-General of the Defendant Rabita Trust. Wadih el-Hage, convicted for his role in the 1998 U.S. Embassy bombings in Africa, stated at his trial that he also worked for MWL in Peshawar. Diab Ali, another al Qaeda operative, now in a U.S. prison, and who played a major role in the U.S. Embassy bombings and who piloted Osama bin Laden's personal jet, also worked for the MWL.

SAAR Foundation

100. Defendant SAAR Foundation ("SAAR") was formed in the 1970' s by a group of Muslim scholars and scientists from the Middle East and Asia. Incorporated in Herndon, Virginia, a suburb of Washington, B.C., as a 501c (3) non-profit organization on July 29, 1983, it was dissolved as of December 28, 2000.

101. The SAAR Foundation reported revenues of over $1.7 billion in 1998, more than any U.S. charity has ever generated. Yet SAAR does not reach out publicly to potential donors, keeping a low public profile.

102. SAAR was a long-time financially supporter of terrorism. According to the Virginia Secretary of State Corporate Records, there are more than one hundred affiliated organizations registered or doing business at just one of SAAR's addresses in Herndon, Virginia. Most of these organizations do not maintain a physical presence there, or anywhere. The SAAR network is a sophisticated arrangement of front groups for fundamentalist Islamic terrorist organizations. After September 11, 2001, the SAAR network was raided under a search warrant by the U.S. Treasury Department's Operation Greenquest looking for "potential money laundering and tax evasion activities and their ties to terrorist groups such as ... al Qaeda as well as individual terrorists . . . (including) Osama bin Laden."

103. Two SAAR executives were former executives at Defendant Bank al-Taqwa . Two others worked for Defendant Youssef M. Nada, the head of al-Taqwa, whose assets were frozen along with al-Taqwa. Other SAAR associates were implicated in the 1998 U.S. Embassy bombings in East Africa.

104. The SAAR network is closely intertwined with Defendants IIRO, MWL, and other related charities.

Rabita Trust

105. Defendant Rabita Trust is a charitable organization created in 1988 jointly by the government of Pakistan and the Defendant MWL to organize the repatriation and rehabilitation of stranded Pakistanis (Biharis) from Bangladesh. During its 15-year existence it has managed to relocate only a few hundred Biharis.

106. Defendant Rabita Trust is a front for al Qaeda, and its head, Wa'el Jalaidan, is one of the founders of al Qaeda and its logistics chief. He is a long-time associate of Osama bin Laden.

107. A subsidiary of the MWL, Defendant Rabita Trust is connected to the SAAR Network through its officers.

108. Defendant Rabita Trust was designated by President George W. Bush as a "Specially Designated Global Terrorist Entity, and its assets have been frozen by the U.S.

Treasury Department.

Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc.

109. Referred to herein, defendant “Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc. a/k/a Al-Haramain Islamic Foundation a/k/a Islamic Al-Haramain” refers to and includes the Al Haramain Foundation of Saudi Arabia, as well as any and all subsidiary, affiliate, related and/or branch offices thereof, including without limitation, all of the following, each of whom has been and is identified as a defendant herein: Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Saudi Arabia) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Afghanistan) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Albania) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Bangladesh) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Bosnia-Herzegovina) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Ethiopia) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Indonesia) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Kenya) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Netherlands) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Pakistan) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Somalia) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation (Tanzania) AND Al Haramain Islamic Foundation a/k/a Al Haramain Islamic Foundation, Inc. 111. Defendant al-Haramain is a charity front for al Qaeda and Osama bin Laden and provides direct material support to al Qaeda. In December 1999, al-Haramain conducted a joint fundraising event with Defendants ERG and WAMY in Riyadh.

112. Defendant al-Haramain's branch in Ashland, Oregon, is specifically linked to al Qaeda operations.

113. The U.S. government has designated two al-Haramain branches, in Bosnia and Somalia, as terrorist entities and has frozen the assets of both because they are clearly linked to terrorist financing. Both branches are controlled, including their funding, management, and direction, by the central al-Haramain headquarters in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

114. Defendant al-Haramain's branch in Jakarta, Indonesia, is the main financial mechanism for funding terrorist operations in the region, including those of al Qaeda affiliate Jemaah Islamiye, and has played a role in terrorist attacks in that country.

115. Defendant al-Haramain was banned from Kenya after the 1998 U.S. Embassy bombings. Osama bin Laden and al Qaeda were indicted and convicted in the United States for plotting and executing these dual attacks in East Africa.

116. Defendant al-Haramain uses its humanitarian mission to disguise its financing of terrorist operations. It disguises the terrorist funds as, among other things, money for projects such as orphanage or Islamic school projects and mosque construction.

It is headquartered in Palos Hills, Illinois, and has offices in numerous Asian countries. It purports to be an international charity, but is actually an al Qaeda affiliate engaged in support of terrorist activities.

119. One of BIF's directors is Defendant Adel Abdul Jalil Batterjee; Defendant Enaam Arnaout, a known associate of Osama bin Laden's, has also been affiliated with BIF.

120. Defendant BIF is tightly connected with Defendant WAMY, sharing the same leadership and working together on many projects, including support for al Qaeda and its terrorist operations. One such project was the publication of a biography of Osama bin Laden and the origins of the al Qaeda network.

121. Defendant BIF has been deeply involved in financing, supporting, and facilitating al Qaeda terror operations through provision of money, equipment, and information, and by concealing and fabricating information and evidence concerning same.

122. Defendant BIF's involvement in support and financing for al Qaeda terrorist operations is disguised as charitable activities.

World Assembly of Muslim Youth

123. As referred to herein, World Assembly of Muslim Youth a/k/a WAMY International, Inc. a/k/a World Association For Muslim Youth includes World Assembly of

Muslim Youth of Saudi Arabia, as well as any and all subsidiary, affiliate, related and/or branch offices thereof, including without limitation, World Assembly of Muslim Youth (Riyadh, Saudi Arabia), World Assembly of Muslim Youth (Jeddah, Saudi Arabia), World Assembly of Muslim Youth (London, United Kingdom) and World Assembly of Muslim Youth (Falls Church, Virginia, USA) (collectively “World Assembly of Muslim Youth” or “WAMY”), Muwaffaq Foundation was founded by Defendant Khalid bin Salim bin Mahfouz, who was dismissed from Defendant NCB after a bank audit revealed a $53 million transfer to Muwaffaq Foundation. Upon information and belief, such funds were channeled to al Qaeda.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

127. Class Definition: Named Plaintiffs bring this action pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, as members of a proposed Class defined as follows:

The following persons shall be members of the Class: (1) all spouses, children, parents or siblings of any individual who died at the World Trade Center in New York, NY, the Pentagon Building in Arlington County, Virginia or in the airliner crash in Shanksville, Pennsylvania as the result of terrorist attacks on September 11,2001; and (2) all legal representatives (including executors, estate administrators and trustees) entitled to bring legal action on behalf of any individual who died as the result of terrorist attacks on September 11,2001; but excluding (3) all individuals, and all spouses, children, parents, siblings and legal representative of individuals, identified by the Attorney General of the United States or otherwise shown to have perpetrated, aided and abetted, conspired in regard to or otherwise supported the terrorist attacks of September 11,2001.

128. Numerosity: The members of the Class are so numerous that their individual joinder would be impracticable in that:

(a) The Class includes the legal representatives and families of over 3,000 people murdered by defendants in the September 11, 2001 attacks in New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania;

(b) It would be highly impractical and a waste of judicial resources for each of those approximately 3,029 Decedents and their related Class members to be individually represented in separate actions or a single action; and

(c) Each of the putative Class members seek to recover damages based upon the common and coordinated conduct of the Defendants.

129. Commonality of Factual and Legal Questions: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class. These common legal and factual questions include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) Whether damages alleged by the Class were proximately caused by the conduct of the Defendants;
- (b) Whether Defendants are liable to the Class for damages for wrongful death, survival and intentional infliction of emotional distress;
- (c) Whether the Defendants are liable to the Class for damages pursuant to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, the Alien Tort Act and/or the Torture Victim Protection Act;
- (d) Whether Defendants are liable to the Class for punitive damages;
- (e) What is the proper method for calculating damages for members of the Class;
- (f) Whether members of the Class can gain access to those assets of Defendants that have been frozen by the United States Department of Treasury in order to satisfy a judgment; and
- (g) Whether members of the Class can gain access to those assets of Defendants that have been frozen by foreign states in order to satisfy a judgment.

130. Typicality: The claims of the Class Representatives are typical of the claims of all members of the Class in that:

- (a) The Class Representatives and all other Class members suffered damages as the result of common conduct and acts of the Defendants;
- (b) Defendants used identical instruments, methods, and plans to inflict harm upon the Class Representatives and all other Class members;

(c) The method used to compute compensatory damages will be identical for the Named Plaintiffs and all other members of the Class; and

(d) Punitive damages should be awarded against the Defendants for singular acts that impacted the Class Representatives and all other Class members.

131. Adequacy of Class Representatives: The Named Plaintiffs are adequate representatives of the Class in that:

(a) The Class Representatives and all other Class members have a unity in interest in bringing this action against the Defendants;

(b) The Class Representatives have made provision for adequate financial resources to be available for the conduct of this litigation in order to ensure that the interests of the Class will not be harmed; and

(c) Members of the Class will be adequately represented by the Class Representatives and their Counsel who are experienced in class action litigation,

132. Predominance of Common Issues and Efficiency of Class Treatment: The common issues of fact and law enumerated above predominate over any individual factual or legal issues, and a Class Action is a superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of those issues in that:

(a) Individualized litigation presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments and increases the burden and expense to all parties and to the court system;

(b) By contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of a single adjudication, economies of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court; and

(c) The claims of the Class Representatives and each Class member as set forth above shall be governed by either federal law or substantially identical state law.

133. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Honorable Court certify this matter as a Class Action and award Plaintiffs and the Class damages on each of the causes of action stated herein plus interest, costs, and such other monetary and equitable relief as this Honorable Court deems appropriate to prevent the Defendants from ever again committing the terrorist acts of September 11, 2001, or similar acts.
