

Election Quick Facts

Fall General Election

December 7th, 2024

WHAT ARE WE VOTING FOR?

Every voter in the state will have the opportunity to vote on four proposed amendments to the Louisiana State Constitution. Some parishes, municipalities, and other limited jurisdictions will also have local propositions on the ballot.

In addition, this election will have runoffs for races from the November primary election. For any primary race in which no candidates received a majority of votes, a runoff is held in the general election.

One special primary will be held in Washington Parish, rescheduled from the November election due to the death of a candidate.
